

Colonel Fazackerley Butterworth - Toast

A Poem by Charles Causley

R: Who lived in Colonel Fazackerley's castle?

I: 'Someone or other forgot to declare' - who would the someone or other be?

V: Find and copy another word for ghost.

R: What was Colonel Fazackerley doing the first time the ghost appeared?

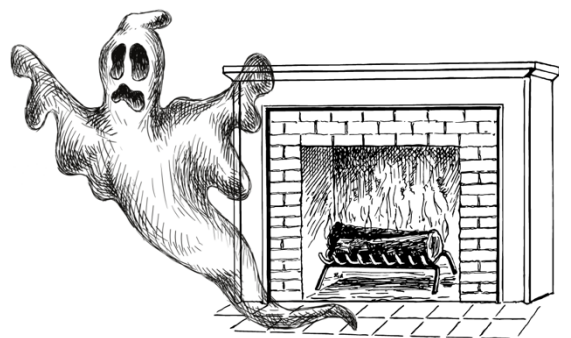

R: What did the ghost say when he appeared out of the chimney?

I: Why wasn't Colonel Fazackerley scared of the ghost?

V: Define 'conceive'.

R: Find and copy a phrase that shows that the ghost was angry at Colonel Fazackerley's reaction.

V: What does it mean if you spurn something?

I: Why does the ghost eventually leave?

R: What does Colonel Fazackerley do when the ghost leaves?

E: How does the author create humour in this poem?

S: Summarise the entire poem in one or two sentences.

P: Predict what would happen in a sequel to this poem.
